The Kid and the Monster

Once upon a time there was a kid who was going to a forest with his parents.

And in the way there was a roadblock and on the roadblock was written: Do not cross.

Then the kid and the kid's parents went home. And at home they watched the news.

And on the news they showed a monster. The monster was hairy.

The kid said: Mom, Dad, I think the monster is just a hairy shadow.
